$SOBA had a fair launch on Pump.fun, ensuring that everyone had an equal opportunity to invest from the start. The total supply of $SOBA is 1 billion, and all of it is currently in circulation. All liquidity is burnt, which means it's permanently removed to enhance the coin's stability and build trust within the community.

The developer holds about 7% of the total supply. A signi cant portion of this will be used for community giveaways and charitable initiatives, reinforcing $SOBA's commitment to giving back. These funds will also support future tokenomics and utilities as the coin continues to grow and evolve.

$SOBA is designed to bene t its community while maintaining a fair and transparent economic model, making it a trustworthy and attractive option for crypto enthusiasts.
